

[F. C. Kinsky

- IV — Over recent years the Blue Penguins of Cook Strait have been closely studied. They show some affinities with the White-flipped Penguins of Bank's Peninsula; and differ both in colour and size from the northern and southern forms of Blue Penguin. This pair is nesting in a cave on Somes Island.