

[Photo by F. C. Kinsky

VI — The Little Owl (Athene noctua) was introduced into Otago first in 1906; and is now widely established in the South Island. This photograph was taken near Invercargill.