

[B. D. Heather

XLIV — Photographed for the first time in New Zealand, the elusive Marsh Crane (P. pusilla affinis). Near Lochiel these small rails walk out from the flax on to the duckweed and floating dead stalks and leaves to feed.