

OSNZ CONSERVATION POLICY

To encourage and support the conservation of birds by providing scientifically sound information for making wise management decisions. Where it is appropriate, individuals and Regions can support bird conservation by participating in hearings, meetings or other consultative processes to present and explain scientific evidence and recommend management arrangements and actions based on that evidence. Resourcing of such activities is at the cost of the individuals and Regions involved.

Endorsed by Council on 23 November 2019