INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

INTENDING CONTRIBUTORS ARE ASKED TO REFER TO NOTORNIS 19 (1): 102-104, APRIL 1972, FOR FULL DETAILS CONCERNING THE PREPARATION OF MANUSCRIPTS SUBMITTED FOR PUBLICATION. Study these carefully and prepare your manuscript accordingly. Unless these requirements, briefly stated below, are followed, manuscripts will be returned without further consideration.

GENERAL — Let at least two other people read your manuscript before sending it in and heed their comments. Check that all editorial requirements have been met and that all pages, tables and figures have been included; wrap and pack securely (especially photographs) and send to: The Editor, Notornis, P.O. Box 8009, Wellington.

FORM — Two copies required, typed, double-spaced with wide margins, on heavy-weight paper.

ABSTRACT — Provide up to 150 words for any paper exceeding 1000 words.

UNITS, CONVENTIONS — Use metric conversions for all measurements. Follow N.Z. Government Printing Office Style Book for other conventions.

NOMENCLATURE — Follow the OSNZ Annotated Checklist (1970) unless otherwise explained. Give scientific and common names (spelt with initial capitals) at first mention.

ILLUSTRATIONS — Plan for legible reduction to 7" x 4" (18 mm x 10 mm) or 3½" x 4" (8.5 mm x 10 mm). Photographs must be on glossy paper with strong contrast.

TABLES — Type cleanly on electric typewriter (whenever possible) with new carbon ribbon on heavy paper. Indicate position of each in the text.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS — Make certain that anyone who is acknowledged as having "critically" read the manuscript has indeed done so.

REFERENCES — These are important. Check titles, dates, and pagination carefully and spell out in full, following examples given in issues of Notornis from March 1972 onwards. In text, cite as "Blackburn (1972) said . . ." or " . . . according to some observers (Kear & Burton 1971)."

ADDRESS — Full postal address of author to be given at end of paper.

PROOFS — Supplied only on request or at Editor's discretion. They must be returned without delay.

REPRINTS — Authors will get 25 free reprints (other than of Short Notes, etc.). Additional reprints may be ordered at cost directly from the printers, Te Rau Press Ltd, P.O. Box 195, Gisborne, after notification of acceptance of the manuscript.

CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE ASSUMED TO BE READY FOR PUBLICATION AS RECEIVED. TYPESCRIPTS AND ILLUSTRATIONS NOT IN THE PROPER FORM WILL BE RETURNED TO THE AUTHOR.

Book reviews, short notes, and news items are especially welcome.
