

[Photo by David Blanshard

- XII (a) — Southern Fulmar or Silver-grey Petrel (F. glacialisoides) in attendance on the Ikatere off C. Runaway in the Bay of Plenty, 23/8/62. This seems to be the northernmost living record of this petrel in New Zealand coastal waters, where it is seldom reported at all.

[Photo by Rodger Blanshard

- XII (b) — A young Brown Teal (A. chlorotis) about four days old, one of a brood of four found on Little Barrier beside Te Waikohare Stream, 21/9/62.